HANS-PETER FELDMAN

NOW SHOWING
JUN 9, 2006 TO AUG 19, 2006

The Contemporary Art Gallery presented German artist Hans-Peter Feldman in his first major solo exhibition in Canada. Over the last three decades Feldman has had a profound influence on the shape of contemporary conceptual art and photography. With this exhibition, curated by Vancouver artist Roy Arden, the CAG introduced local audiences to the breadth of Feldman's photographic work presenting a selection of his signature book works, printed multiples and photographic works. This array of work, spanning from the mid-seventies to the present,

This group exhibition gathered works by 6 Canadian artists who bring abstraction to the edge of representation. Eli Borowsky (Vancouver), Eli Langer (Los Angeles), Kika Thorne (Toronto/Toronto), Holly Ward (Vancouver), Geoffrey Farmer (Vancouver) and Derek Sullivan (Toronto) all questioned the use of abstraction through the formal explorations. Many of the works directly referenced and represented Modernist paradigms.
